

The next set of Bridge Lessons will begin in January with the emphasis on the play of the hands. We will be using the Audrey Grant Diamond Series as the book for the series of classes.

Lessons will be limited to 8 people per class so that we can get some better individualized learning. Also, pre-registration will be required since we are limiting the class size.

Here are the particulars:

Class times:

- Wednesdays at 9:00 am
- Thursdays at 9:00 am
- Thursday at 12:30 pm
- Mondays at 3:00 pm

Dates:

- Six weeks starting the week of January 8.
- Last week is week of February 12.

Instructor:

- Bob Stitt (and at least one helper)

Cost:

- $10 per lesson or $50 for all six.
- Pay as you go or up front.

Sign up by contacting Bob Stitt – bobstitt1@gmail.com; 937-831-6341.

Bob's feeling is that playing the hand is the most fun and is easier to learn to be competent than bidding or defense. Later, in the year, if this class is successful, we will tackle the Audrey Grant Heart Series, which specializes in defense.
